

April 2013

With reference to EN 14351-1:2006 clause 4.6 dangerous substances, Sapa Building Systems Limited confirms that to the best of its knowledge in so far as the state of the art permits there are no materials in its products which are liable to emit or migrate substances potentially dangerous to hygiene, health or the environment during normal intended use.

Mark Robinson
Technical Director